SLSA is now calling for nominations from current licensed level 3 accredited surf sports officials who wish to be considered for the position of Referee at the 2009 Sydney World Masters Games.

Nominations close Friday 30th January 2009

All nominations should be forwarded on the supplied nomination form direct to:

Surf Life Saving Australia
Locked Bag 2
BONDI BEACH NSW 2026
Fax to (02) 9130 8312

Please ensure you correctly and completely fill out the all attached forms for your submission to be considered. All nominations should be accompanied with a covering letter.

Nominations should include details of past experience in refereeing or officiating at large scale events. Nominees should be a current licensed minimum Level 3 Surf Sports Official.

Appointments will be made by the SLSA Director of Surf Sports and the Officials Selection Advisor. Late nominations will only be accepted at the discretion of the Officials Selection Advisor. Appointments will be made soon after the closing date and those appointed will be notified by letter advising of briefing details and report times.

The Referee, once appointed will be required to attend briefing meetings in preparation for the event and will need to be able to contacted on a regular basis. Attendance at these meetings is a mandatory condition of appointment.

All officials for this event will be responsible for their own travel and accommodation costs. Appointed officials will receive a 2009 Sydney World masters games uniform, be entitled to free public transport and entry into the opening and closing ceremonies as well as Sydney World Masters promotional products.
