Department Lifesaving, Surf Sports and Development

Summary

This circular announces the details of the National Recognition Awards for season 2009/10.

The purpose of these awards is to recognise and reward members who have made an outstanding contribution to the delivery and development of surf lifesaving activities across nine areas. Applications for each award closes on dates specified by states and at SLISA on 30 July 2010.

IN BRIEF:

This circular contains information about the 2009/10 season National Recognition Awards for nominees and selection panels:

- Section 1 – Award Categories and General Conditions
- Section 2 – Individual Award Criteria and Conditions
- Section 3 – Nomination Form

SECTION 1 – AWARD CATEGORIES AND GENERAL CONDITIONS

AWARD CATEGORIES

Major Awards:

- Australian Surf Life Saving Volunteer of the year
- Australian Surf Lifesaver of the year
- Club of the year

Recognition Awards:

- Lifeguard of the year
- Athlete of the year
- Coach of the year
- Official of the year
- Trainer of the year
- Assessor of the year

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Application closing dates:

Branches as specified by Branch
State as specified by State
SLSA: 30 July 2010

Selection Period:

These awards are orientated towards involvement and activities during the 2009/10 season. The most important area for selection is the individual's/club's contribution from the 1 July 2009 – 30 June 2010.

Organisation Employees:

Paid employees at any level may apply for the awards listed with the exception of Volunteer of the year (where paid service will not count) and Lifesaver of the Year, (where paid frontline service delivery is recognised in the Lifeguard of the Year award). Voluntary contribution will be weighted more heavily than paid service.

Guidelines for submission:

- 1. Applicants are required to complete and submit a nomination form. This nomination form can be found in section three of this circular.
- 2. Applicants must address the selection criteria for their individual nominated award. This is to be submitted together with the nomination form. Individual selection criteria can be found in section two of this circular. Please list each selection criteria as a heading with your response typed under each section.

When completing the selection criteria, applicants must also address the following:

Past contribution

The judges are looking for growing commitment to surf lifesaving, impact of involvement and activities, and continuous improvement while showing initiative, motivation and leadership. This involvement will span the past three years unless the activity is of particular importance.

2009/10 Contribution

This is the single most important of assessment and the judges will rely heavily on information placed on your nomination form, selection criteria and endorsements by the club/branch/state.

Future Contribution

Applicants will identify future commitments and ambitions to surf lifesaving

- 3. Applicants are to include a digital image of themselves for the individual awards or the club logo for 'Club of the Year' on a CD. This will assist in award presentations if the applicant is successful.
- 4. Complete nominations are to be sent to respective branch or state/territory centres by the closing dates recommended by your branch/state body.

Selection Process:

1. In NSW and Queensland, branches should select a branch 'winner' and forward the winner's application to their state/territory centre.
2. Upon receipt of completed nominations, state/territory centres will consider nominations and determine a state/territory 'winner'.
3. State/territory winners will be forwarded onto SLSA for consideration for the national award.
4. Winners of all state/territory 'Major Awards' will be required to attend an interview (most likely in the days prior to the Awards of Excellence evening. A presentation will be required during this interview (see individual award criteria and guidelines). The panel will select a winner from both a review of the application and the interview.
5. Winners of all state/territory 'Recognition Awards' will be selected by a panel and will involve a review of applications and possibly a teleconference interview.

Presentation of Awards:

Awards will be announced and presented at the SLSA Awards of Excellence evening on Saturday 21 August 2010 at the Sydney Convention Centre. The Awards of Excellence will coincide with the SLSA Administration Conference.

In recognition of their achievements all national finalists are encouraged to attend the SLSA Awards of Excellence.
